

at the beautiful place which is called Port Lincoln Foreshore

Where It is held in South Australia when It will be held 24th to 27th January 2020 who five women manage this festival as ambassadors as well as South Australia government does

Many

Competitions There are many enjoyable competitions in the festival. I'm going to explain the most popular one that is called tuna toss

Why In 1979 Some locals from tunarama committee wanted something unique which makes ^{the} festival more attractive; then, they found an idea from locals. Many local boys was looking for a part time job to because they are concerned for uncertain economic times.
But there is One thing they have to do to get the job is pass exam. What is exam like? They load many tunas onto truck. Eventually, they throw tuna up as far as possible.
A person who throw up the farthest was able to get a job.

Food, they have lots of seafood.
There are many food trucks.

Fireworks, rides